HOLY THURSDAY

Heralding the start of spring in a pale blue coat and hat, the Queen attended the Royal Maundy Service, held this year at Derby Cathedral, with the Duke of Edinburgh. She presented Maundy money to pensioners who had been recommended for their work in local churches in what is believed to have been the 800th anniversary of the Easter ceremony.

song. At last the mass was over. Dad and I walked home very quickly for it was well past 9:30!

GOOD FRIDAY

On Friday morning we followed the Stations of the cross from St. John's Wood Church to the Church of Our Lady.

Good Friday 2nd of April

Mass was at St Anthony's church in Pawtucket, Rhode Island
I went with my aunt and with my Grand mother.
We walked in a procession to remember how Jesus died.

Holy Saturday 2010

On Saturday at 9pm I went to church for the Easter Vigil. This is the time I usually go to bed

When we arrived we went straight in the sacristy with the other children doing their first Holy Communion this year. Father Allen told us how the mass would be. We followed him outside and stood at one side of the bonfire. Then we entered the church and lit everyone's candle while the church was dark. The lights came on when we sung the "gloria".

The FHC children sat at the front row to see 20 grownups near the font

- get baptised. There was also a baby who got baptised and when the water came onto his head he started crying.

Later teenagers received confirmation. There were lots of readings from the Bible and the mass ended at midnight !!!
